How We Collect Information About You and Your Consent

We collect personal information, for example when you open an account; make a deposit; apply for a loan; use your credit or debit card; or look for advice about your investments. We will also collect information from others, such as credit bureaus (like the Irish Credit Bureau), or through our website, apps, social media sites, community based discussion forums and CCTV footage. We will sometimes record phone conversations to improve security, resolve complaints, improve service and train our people. We will always let you know when we are recording our calls with you.

Our websites use 'cookie' technology. A cookie is a little piece of text that our server places on your device when you visit any of our websites. They help us make the site work better for you. Our Legal Obligations

We have legal obligations to prevent fraud, tax avoidance, money laundering and terrorist financing. These obligations mean we have to continually update our customer information. Often we have to share customer information with third party law enforcement agencies.

Where false or misleading information is given to us, or we suspect criminal activity we will record this and tell the appropriate law enforcement agencies, which may be within and outside Ireland.
