For gifts and inheritances taken on or after 23rd January 1997 the taxable value of “relevant business property” is reduced by 90%.

Company Shares:

The definition of “relevant business property” includes unquoted shares and securities of Irish incorporated companies subject to certain conditions.

The Company

The company’s business must not consist wholly or mainly of any of the following excluded activities - dealing in currencies, securities, stocks or shares, land or buildings, or the making or holding of investments.

The Beneficiary

For the relief to apply the beneficiary must meet one of the following ownership/control tests:

- i) The shares themselves or together with other shares in the company held in the absolute beneficial ownership of the beneficiary, give the beneficiary control of 25% of the voting power over all matters relating to the company,
- or
- ii) the beneficiary controls the company or the company is controlled by the beneficiary and his relatives*,
- or
- iii) the beneficiary holds at least 10% of the issued capital of the company and has worked full time in the company for 5 years prior to the gift/inheritance.

* Relatives of a person include his spouse, children, mother, father, aunt/uncle and any children, grandchildren of any the foregoing. In addition all spouses of relatives are included for the purposes of determining control.

Control includes having over 50% of the voting power, or owning more than 50% of the shares or being in a position to control the board of directors.

General

The information above has concentrated on the conditions that apply to the business and the beneficiary in order to qualify for Business Relief. There are some other general conditions worth noting:

Disponer

The property must have been owned by the disponer for a period of 5 years prior to a gift or 2 years in the case of an inheritance.

Clawback of Relief

If within 6 years of the gift or inheritance the business ceases to qualify or if the property is sold or compulsory acquired and not replaced within one year with other business property, the relief will be clawed back.
