

STRATEGIC ASSET RETURN FUND

Information is correct at 31st March 2015

Fund Description

The Irish Life Strategic Asset Return Fund invests in a dynamic blend of specialist alternative funds managed by international asset managers, and is diversified across a range of traditional and alternative asset classes and management styles. Based on the objectives of the underlying managers, the aim of the fund is to generate a real return with a lower volatility than equities, or the average managed fund.

This fund is subject to incentive fees.

Warning: If you invest in this product you may lose some or all of the money you invest.

The assets in this fund may be used for the purposes of securities lending in order to earn an additional return for the fund. While securities lending increases the level of risk within the fund it also provides an opportunity to increase the investment return.
